Taking his father's request to play "I spy" seriously, Dr. Cole Young sets out to prove this his over-the-hill uncle's sexy, young, vivacious fiancée uses hypnosis to swindle men out of money. Believing he's too smart to be hypnotized Cole poses as a client to uncover her scam.

Ginger Prescott, a gifted medium and hypnotherapist is used to working with clients with issues ranging from serious to sublimely ridiculous. But she has never dealt with a client whose touch short circuits her senses, has her mind wondering beyond the client/therapist relationship and who obviously isn't who she thought.

With help from a 300-year-old spell, a meddling aunt's haphazard approach to magic and mischievous spirits, Ginger and Cole discover that love does conquer all.
